

FUEL A HANDLELIFE FUTURE

Handlelife Cares Corp, a 501(c)3 nonprofit, closes the gap and brings transformational basketball training and character development through donations to youth whose families cannot afford such services. Our basketball model is a key driver for developing elite young people of character while addressing gaps and unmet demands by opening the doors of opportunity to those who, too often, continue to be left out.

Handlelife Cares' mission is an essential part of the solution to foster the development of critical intangible skills that support our youth on and off the basketball court and create greater equality and equity. As such, we are working to grow our community of support to both expand programmatic opportunities for underserved youth and change lives through the game of basketball, thereby strengthening the quality of our Handlelife family.
